

Boiler Plate

HealthyDakota Mutual Holdings is a parent company that supports Blue Cross Blue Shield of North Dakota and several other subsidiaries. HealthyDakota is helping advance the health and well-being of the people and communities it serves and supports in North Dakota by continually striving to deliver value while responding to market demands. Whether helping process and administer benefits in the most efficient manner possible, providing opportunities for affordable health and supplemental benefits, or directly supporting wellness education and programming, HealthyDakota's goal is to invest in solutions and brands that make a positive contribution on overall health and well-being. Visit healthydakota.com.